Friends,

Today, the FBI released a redacted version of its affidavit seeking to raid Former President Donald Trump's home at Mar-a-Lago. The censored affidavit reveals next to nothing. 20 out of 32 pages of the affidavit's pages are censored and we still don't know what the FBI took from President Trump's home.

So much for transparency.

Big Tech Censored Hunter Biden Story

Mark Zuckerberg revealed that the FBI directed Facebook to censor the Hunter Biden laptop story right before the 2020 election.

This is yet another egregious example of Big Tech and the deep state collaborating to boost Democrats.

Biden's Student Loan Boondoggle

This week, President Biden launched his latest offensive on the American economy and our Constitution. Just months before the midterms, Biden is attempting to bribe college-educated voters by “canceling” their student loan debt.

Most Americans don't have student loans, yet they are being asked to bail out Americans who took on major debt obligations. The cost of college is skyrocketing, and it's largely driven by an unending spigot of federal funds propping up colleges that have massive tax-free endowments. This action does nothing to address the cost of education – it will only make it worse.

This proposal is of dubious Constitutional merit, and my office is looking into all options to fight it and prevent similar usurpations in the future.

Democrats and their friends in Big Tech are also silencing opposition to Biden's Student Loan boondoggle. This Wednesday, the House Judiciary Committee posted on Facebook against the executive action, and their post was swiftly removed. I spoke to the Epoch Times about this yesterday:

Another Ukrainian Spending Spree

This week, President Biden announced he would be sending an additional $3 billion to Kiev to mark Ukraine's Independence Day. The United States has now sent \$13.6 billion in military aid to Ukraine, more than three times any of our allies. Biden is more concerned with the security of Ukraine's border than our own, and more concerned with the economic wellbeing of Ukraine than our own.

A CBS report found that the massive, unchecked aid packages being sent to Ukraine were not reaching their intended destinations. One source told CBS that as little as 30% of the supplies sent, including weapons, were making it to their intended target. But after the pro-Ukraine consensus in Washington bashed the report, CBS went back and altered their own journalism.

As I told the Daily Wire, anyone who raises critical questions about the lack of oversight on Ukraine funding is tarred as a “Putin puppet.” I will continue to oppose these massive spending packages.

Rep. Dan Bishop on Wake-Up America: “The American people are drowning in inflation”

I recently sat down with Newsmax’s “Wake Up America” morning show to discuss President Biden’s “Inflation Reduction Act.” The American people are drowning in a wave of inflation and rising prices. Instead of throwing them a life raft, this administration has thrown them an economic anvil.
